CONTRABAND CATTLE

Dealer Arrested for Importing Cattle Without Health Certificate.

Oscar Devore, a cattle dealer of near Eighty-four, Washington county, Pa., appeared before the county court at Washington, Pa., on June 11 and plead guilty to a charge of illegally importing cattle from West Virginia into Pennsylvania. He was sentenced to pay a fine and costs of prosecution.

The prosecution was brought by agents of the Pennsylvania State Live-stock Sanitary board who discovered that Mr. Devore had imported a number of cattle without being accompanied by a certificate of health as required by an act of assembly. State agents have been patrolling the Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia border line and a number of other prosecutions are pending.

RETURN VISIT

Trinity Brotherhood to Call on Body at Curwensville.

The membership of the Brotherhood of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church is making arrangements to go to Curwensville, to visit the Brotherhood of the M. E. church there, on Friday evening of this week. The present arrangement is for the men to take the B. & P. train, and a special train will bring them back to Clearfield.

A meeting will be held on Wednesday evening immediately following prayer meeting, for the purpose of completing arrangements and all members of the Brotherhood are expected to be present.

Some months ago the Curwensville Brotherhood visited the order at this place, where all enjoyed a royal good time. Almost one hundred men from Curwensville were present, and it is hoped that the Clearfield aggregation will make an equally good showing.

RESERVE BOARD IS NAMED BY PRESIDENT

Hamlin and Jones in Places Declined by Other Men.

Washington, June 16.—President Wilson has sent to the senate the following nominations for places on the federal reserve board:

A. C. Miller of California for the term of ten years.

W. T. G. Harding of Alabama for the term of eight years.

Thomas D. Jones of Illinois for the term of six years.

Paul M. Warburg of New York for the term of four years.

Charles S. Hamlin of Massachusetts for the term of two years.

Mr. Hamlin will be governor of the board. This place was offered Richard Olney of Massachusetts, who refused to accept it. At present he is assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of customs. He held the same place under the second Cleveland administration.

Mr. Jones of Chicago takes the place declined by Harry A. Wheeler of Chicago.

All of the men whose nominations were sent to the senate have signified their willingness to accept the proffered places. It is not expected that there will be any delay in the senate over confirmation of the appointments.

Mrs. Mayo Has Breakdown.
Pahoa, Ky., June 16.—Mrs. John C. Mayo, widow of Colonel Mayo, who died in New York, will go to one of the eastern resorts, where she will undergo treatment for a nervous breakdown superinduced by her grief at her husband's bedside.

The inside of the Lutheran church is being torn out and the wall being boarded up. The church will be used all summer, but it will be in a much different condition than usual. The work of enlargement is progressing rapidly and will be finished by September 1.

DR. BRUMBAUGH PENROSE FRIEND

Proof That The Schoolteacher Stands For Big Boss

WILLIAM TILDEN'S STATEMENT

Washington State Chairman's Assertion That Brumbaugh is Tool of Bipartisan Machine Has Not Been Refuted—G. O. P. Candidate Cannot Deny It.

At the recent Lincoln club dinner, in Philadelphia, William T. Tilden, president of the Union League and intimate associate of Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, Republican candidate for governor of Pennsylvania, made the following statement:

"There are certain newspapers, I may say one in particular, which have declared that Doctor Brumbaugh would not appear on the same platform with Senator Penrose and that he would not speak from the same platform.

Brumbaugh for Penrose.

"That kind of twaddle is all nonsense. Doctor Brumbaugh will stand on the same platform as Senator Penrose. He will have to stand on the same ticket.

"And I may say with authority that Doctor Brumbaugh is just as anxious to see Senator Penrose elected as to see himself elected.

"I will say for Doctor Brumbaugh that the most important thing for us is the election of Penrose for United States senator."

Can He Refute It?

No answer or denial has yet been made concerning the charges brought in a statement issued by Chairman A. Nevin Detrich, of the Washington party state committee as follows:

"As to the Brumbaugh campaign, I charge that it was and is principally in the hands of the machine. W. Harry Baker, Penrose's political secretary, had charge of the work of securing signers to the Brumbaugh nominating petitions.

"Most of the petitions were carried by the same men who carried the Penrose petitions, many of them being actively engaged in the liquor business and most of them being of the bread-and-butter political brigade.

Trying to Fool Voters.

"I charge that the Brumbaugh petitions were carried in all parts of the state by employees of the various departments in Harrisburg, especially the highway department, the department of health, the dairy and food department, and that these employees did the work on the state's time, while drawing salaries from the state.

"Finally, I charge that Doctor Brumbaugh has a distinct understanding with Senator Penrose and that it is agreed between them that they are to stay apart on the stump."

PERMITS GRANTED

The state department has issued permits for the erection of three bridges in Clearfield county. The bridges in question are those which the commissioners expect to build at Shawville, Chester Hill and Madera.

The Summer Bible school is a regular and prominent feature of the chautauqua and Bible conference work of this well-known summer resort.

MEN'S MEETING A BIG SUCCESS

Evangelist Johnson Speaks Plainly to Osceola People

"THE SOCIAL PERIL" SUBJECT

Parents Responsible for the Waywardness of Their Sons and Daughters—Pays His Respects to Men Who Stand on Street Corners Cursing and Swearing.

Osceola Mills, June 16.—Three rousing services were held in the big tabernacle Sunday. The building was crowded at every service and on account of the large number who were unable to get into the building it was decided by the committee to enlarge the building, which was done Monday. They came from neighboring towns all around.

The evangelist "Bob" Johnson, and party, have won many friends here and are making many church members and sinners feel there is something wrong with their way of living. At the evening meeting Sunday, a number of men and women "struck the trail."

The Men's Meeting.

The men's meeting opened in the tabernacle Sunday afternoon at the appointed time with a delightful and forceful song service under the direction of Prof. Weaver, there being a choir of about 50 male voices and an audience of between 500 and 600 men. Mr. Mainwaring also pleased the men by his masterful playing.

Rev. Johnson began his discourse by stating that as he looked out on the audience he thought of all these men as lovers of homes. Among his announcements was the one for Tuesday night when he expects to speak on the subject of "Backbone" which he urged all men to hear. He is going to put Osceola on the map for God.

The Social Peril.

His subject for Sunday afternoon meeting, "The Social Peril," was taken from a part of verse 35 of Psalm 104, "Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more." In a straightforward manner and with examples he enlightened the men on the awful sins that are being committed all around us day in and day out, and the audience almost to a man upheld him in his statements by frequent applauding. Among other things he said: "We should be very careful about our lives; how we influence others. 'Whosoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.' Our personal liberty is to be governed by the liberty of others. I would rather suffer my right arm to be cut off with a cleaver than to put my name down on a ballot to let a man make as many drunks as he can for twelve months. Blood will tell in man and beast. I am going to make it as hard to do wrong and as easy to do right as I can while in this town." Gal 6: 7, "Be not deceived, God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." The world will laugh with you so long as you have a dollar to blow, but when the dollars are blown, it will have nothing to do with you."

Parents Responsible.

He related the story of how Eve tempted Adam to eat of the forbidden fruit in the garden of Eden, and the sad consequences of this sin. "The boys are smarter today than we were when we were boys." 1 John 1: 7, "The blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth us from all sin." Psalms 14: 1; "The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God; they are corrupt; they have done abominable works; there is none that doeth good. The Lord looked down from Heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God. They are all gone aside, they are all together or become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one." The Grape-Nuts man said: "There's a reason," so in these awful sins that are being committed there's a reason, and very often the fathers and mothers are to blame for the sins of their boys and girls. You are not a good citizen when you swear. If there is anything I despise it is to see a lot of men standing around on the corners telling a lot of dirty stories and swearing. 'Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord, thy God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.' Stealing is better than cursing. Money for the boys to spend sends them to hell quicker than anything else. A boy always wants a friend when he is in trouble. Many a boy is blamed for the sins of his father. You can teach your boy to follow your tracks."

Brother William C. Brown then took the stand and gave an interesting testimony of how he was won to Christ and urged others to accept Him as their Savior.

RAILROADERS HIT HARD

Pennsy Will Not Give Employees Vacations With Pay.

Conductors and trainmen in the passenger service of the Pennsylvania railroad system will get no vacations at full pay this summer. The management has cut off such vacations, which is regarded as gratuities to the men.

For this, several reasons are given. First of all, under the award last fall with regard to wages and working conditions of trainmen, the company was required to do a number of things which the management felt to be unreasonable and burdensome.

It was then stated that the vacations at pay, which not all railroads had been allowing would be discontinued, on the Pennsylvania railroad.

Another reason is to cut down present expenses. Yet another given is that the company has encountered such persistent demand from the labor unions for equalized conditions of service that the vacations are ended because they were not given in all branches of the service nor by all companies.

SERIOUS MISHAP

C. R. McMurray Has Nose Broken While in Automobile.

C. R. McMurray, while on the way to Mahaffey Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. McGee, accompanied by Dr. Bennett in the latter's automobile, had his nose broken and two teeth knocked out.

The accident was the result of the automobile striking a "thank-you man" in the road, Mr. McMurray being bounced against the top of the car, his face striking the rib of the cover, with the above result.

TOLL BILL SIGNED

President Wilson Completes Surrender to Great Britain.

Washington, June 16.—President Wilson yesterday signed the Panama tolls exemption repeal bill as amended in the senate and agreed to by the house.

There was no ceremony at the formal approval of surrender to Great Britain. Mr. Wilson signed the bill with a quill pen used by President Harrison in signing the international copyright law in 1891, and by President Taft in signing the Pan-American copyright treaty, the Lincoln memorial bill and the act incorporating the National Institute of Art and Letters.

The pen is the property of Robert Underwood Johnson, of New York.

"Strangers of Paris"

"The Strangers of Paris," the first of a series of famous subjects, was given at the New opera house, Monday evening. A good-sized audience saw the pictures and enjoyed them. This picture is dramatized from Beloit's famous novel of the same name, by David Belasco, and to say that the pictures were well staged is putting it mildly. Others of the series will be shown soon. Watch for the announcements, and enjoy some really good motion pictures.

Surveying for Culverts.

George C. Campbell, of the state highway department, is in town today, having been called here to help to survey for three small culverts in Lawrence township.

Wire Stealing Charged.

A man named Krofts was lodged in jail Monday on the charge of stealing copper wire from Swoope & Co., at Madera and selling it at DuBois.

DuBois Fire Anniversary.

Thursday will be the anniversary of the big fire in DuBois in 1888, and the event will be celebrated in the usual manner in that town.

Getting Along Nicely.

Homer Crook, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Crook, of Pittsburg, who was operated upon for appendicitis at the hospital, is getting along nicely today.

Bass Season Opened.

Bass fishing season opened Monday but as there are no bass in the river, local fishermen are not interested in the announcement.

HUERTA MAY END PEACE MEETING

Will Never Consent to a Dictator Becoming President.

ULTIMATUM TO WILSON

Representative of Dictator in Washington Asserts That Rather Than Vote to Constitutionalists Huerta Will Fight—United States May Invade Mexico City Next.

Washington, June 16.—An ultimatum by Huerta demanding that he be allowed to name his successor threatened to end all Mexican mediation proceedings. Huerta has declared again that no Constitutionalist shall succeed him, except through force.

The rebels are equally determined that one of their number must head the proposed provisional government. Carranza further complicated the efforts toward mediation by refusing to send delegates to the Niagara Falls conference unless formally invited by the A. B. C. mediators.

Wilson Gets Reply.

Huerta's latest ultimatum was delivered to President Wilson by Charles A. Towne, former senator from Minnesota, now a New York attorney. Mr. Towne told the president that if Carranza or any of his followers is chosen head of the provisional government by the Niagara Falls mediators Huerta will fight to a finish.

The dictator is insistent that if the supreme authority in Mexico is temporarily vested in a commission of five three members at least must be able to carry out Huerta's plans.

Should a break in the mediation plans occur now it is felt that it will result from this government insisting that the Constitutionalist be formally recognized in the formation of the new government.

"Will Fight to Finish."

"General Huerta will not agree to the naming of any follower or supporter of General Carranza under any circumstances," said Mr. Towne. "He will fight to a finish before he will make any such concession."

"To do otherwise would be equivalent to his saying to Carranza: 'I resign. You or one of your men can take my office.' And he certainly will say nothing of the kind."

So far the mediation envoys have been unable to agree on the personnel of the proposed provisional government. This was due to the attitude of the Huerta delegates, who informed the A. B. C. mediators of Huerta's unalterable position toward having a Constitutionalist succeed him.

Backed by the president and Secretary Bryan, the American delegates have held out for adequate representation for the Carrankistas in the new government.

United States May Invade Capital.
Occupation of the City of Mexico by the United States in the event of the failure of the mediation conference was freely discussed here among the army and navy circles.

It was conceded that this move would practically be forced on the United States unless all American forces were withdrawn from Vera Cruz, which is highly improbable.

Good evening! Lost all desire to get away from home during these cool, pleasant evenings, eh?

WOMEN'S CLOTHES.

A number of club women are in session in Chicago discussing matters of
more or less import to their sex.
Among other topics occupying the attention of the women is that of dress.
At the very beginning of the discussion it might be just as well for the
club women to bear in mind the fact that they may talk until doomsday
and resolve until they wear out their pencils and paper, but women will
dress as they please, after all.

Women's dress of today is ridiculous, of course. Even some of the females of the species admit this. But what woman is going to bring down
upon her head the anathemas of her sisters by attempting to show why
women should dress sensibly? Fashion decrees and woman obeys, with-
er the style is pretty or outlandish.
Mere man looks on with amazement,
but is silent—except occasionally when
he sees a woman who is trying to see
just how little clothing she can get
upon her person without incurring
the displeasure of the law.

Not one woman in ten knows who originates the fashions in dress which
she copies, whether these are the
work of freaks or women haters who
want to make women appear ridiculous. It is said that the extremes in dress originate among the demimonde in Paris, but whether this be
true or not the woman who is clothed
in the latest style does not stop to inquire. The matter of feminine apparel
will adjust itself in time, but that time
appears to be a long way off.

WHAT OF THE YOUTHS?

That raid of lower Witter park on Sunday night, in which two girls under sixteen years of age were apprehended in company with a number of

boys of tender years should open the eyes of some of the parents in Clearfield. Is it possible for young girls
and boys to walk the streets or rendezvous in parks and other places without their parents' knowledge? We do not think so, and the parents of wayward children must be charged with responsibility for the ruin of their
sons and daughters.

There is scarcely an hour of the
night, from the coming of darkness
to one and two o'clock that young boys and girls may not be seen on the streets of this town. That these youngsters are not away from home
for any good purpose is self-evident.
How long will the fathers and mothers of this town blind themselves to
the misconduct of their young sons
and daughters? Are they waiting to see their children haled into juvenile court and sentenced to reform
schools?

The Clearfield County Law association and the citizens of the county generally owe a big debt of gratitude to Thomas H. Murray, Esq., who has brightened the court room with
the portraits of three of the judges
who sat on the bench here in the early history of the county.

It is up to the fathers and mothers
of Clearfield tots to see that the Fourth of July is celebrated in a safe
and sane manner.

An Ohio court has decided that
wooden legs are wearing apparel, but
no woman will pine for one, nevertheless.

ful dodger of the present political
campaign.

EPIGRAMS BY A FORMER RAILROAD PRESIDENT.

The following striking sentences are from the testimony of Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New Haven railroad,
before the interstate commerce
commission:

The great force in the world is brains. Mr. Morgan had them.
I had more bosses when I was getting $60,000 a year as president of the New Haven than
when I was getting $50 a month
as a clerk.

The higher a man gets in this
world the more bosses he has.
Everybody who has authority is
a boss.

I think that government control of railroads is sure to come.
They have an odd expression
which I think fits Mr. Morgan's case: "Where MacGregor sits is
the head of the table." He was MacGregor.

I am a poorer man today, than
I was when I first became president of the New Haven.
Gratitude is a lively expectation of favors yet to come.

We were looking for a lightning rod to shy away the knocks.
I was never reimbursed by the
New Haven for any political contribution made by me. No one even said "Thank you."

My salary was raised from $50,000 to $60,000 a year in the face of my personal protest. But
I took the money because I felt
I might as well have it as somebody else. If any railroad president has not the ability to live on $25,000 a year salary he has
not the ability to be president
of the road.

Stockholders are like sheep.
When they are getting dividends they go out to the pasture to browse. When they don't get them they all start for the
same hole in the fence and try
to injure themselves.

I have always kept away from
politicians because I might have
something of value in my clothes.

HOLDS OUT HOPE IN CANCER CASES

Danger in Small Wounds That Demand Quick Attention.

ENCOURAGING STATISTICS.

These Are Given by Officer of Society
Formed to Fight the Disease in Public Message, Emphasizing Necessity
of Prompt Investigation of First Suspicious Signs.

Says Curtis E. Lakeman, executive secretary of the American Society For
the Control of Cancer:

Cancer can be prevented or cured
and the needless sacrifice of thousands
of lives can be stopped by educating
the public as to the facts about this disease. Safety lies only in early recognition of the symptoms and prompt operation. Radium is useful in some cases, but it is not to be relied upon as
a substitute for surgical treatment—
the only known sure cure.

This message of the hope to be found
in early and competent treatment
should be spread broadcast. The need of supplying the public with better
knowledge about the disease is vividly shown by a newspaper clipping received at the office of the American Society
For the Control of Cancer. A woman wrote to the inquiry column of the newspaper that a lump on her breast
had been growing about a year. She said she had been told that "kerosene rubbed on it was good for it" and had
tried it without result except to cause
inflammation, and so she was "very much worried." The answer published along with this letter advised her to
"bathe the spot thoroughly and apply
a pad of antiphlogisticin."

The foremost surgeon of the world
recently said in a public address that
people wait, on the average, a whole
year after discovering some suspicious
symptom before they go to the operating table. Another surgeon studied his own records and those of six
of the largest New York hospitals to
throw light both on the frequency of
cancer and the delay in seeking treatment. Out of 12,345 surgical patients
he found 542 cases of cancer, approximately one in twenty-two, or 4.39 per cent. In sixty-five cases of first operation for cancer he found that after
discovery of a tumor or after the first suspicious symptoms the thirty-five
men had waited, on the average, 12.2
months before consulting the surgeon
and the thirty women an average of 11.9 months.

Delay Means Death.

In like manner Dr. Winter of Koenigsberg, Prussia, the pioneer in the education of the public on cancer, analyzed 1,087 records of operable cases
and showed that 87 per cent of these
patients could and should have come
to treatment much earlier.

A preliminary study of the records
kept at the hospital and laboratories
of one of the largest American centers
of medical education shows that the chances of a permanent cure, if operation be resorted to promptly, are very high. It shows equally that these

chances decrease with every day of delay. And as the likelihood of cure becomes remote the immediate danger
and damage of the operation become greater. That is to say, a new and small cancer may be removed without
much pain and without much mutila-
tion, but an old and dispersed cancer
leaves a serious wound behind it.

These records have already been analyzed and tabulated for cancer of the lip, tongue and breast. The statement of results takes account of the conditions said to precede actual cancer,
such as tobacco blisters, white spots
and sore places about the teeth. While there is a difference of opinion as to
the bearing of such conditions on the development of true cancer, it cannot
be denied that in many cases they seem to cause the disease.

In operations on the tongue the figures show that the prompt removal of
the "precancerous lesion" resulted in 100 per cent of cures. In the second stage—i. e., that of malignant warts—
complete removal was equally effective. But when the actual figures of developed cancer were studied the proportion of cures dropped at once to 50
per cent.

Cancer of the Breast.

In cancer of the breast the danger of
delay is equally apparent. In the milder form, called adenocarcinoma, the percentage of cures in all cases was 76, but in the late cases—i. e., those in which the cancerous nature of the tumor was already obvious to the eye—
it was much less. In these early cases there is a warning lump in the
breast, but no outward sign of malignant tumor. In the more malignant forms of breast tumor the general percentage of cures dropped to 36 and in
late cases to 33, or one patient out of three. But even here the cures in early cases reached 85 per cent.

In operations for cancer of the lip
the reports show 100 per cent of cures
in the earliest stages and 75 per cent
of cures after complete operation in
the later stages.

The evidence so far collected on early cancer also gives an opportunity for a message to the people who seek help
in the later stage of cancer. Although
the chances of a cure here are less, the
disease in many instances is by no means hopeless.

Standing Up and Sitting Up.

Lady de Bathe (Mrs. Langtry) once made the piquant remark that she was
"a foe to dissipation or anything of
that kind, and I would urge every girl
to say 'No' to the dissipated man who would marry her. The man a girl is obliged to stand up for before marriage she will have to sit up for afterward."—Strand Magazine.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre
or when it fades; turns gray, dull
and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmothers made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and
beautiful, and thousands of women
and men who value that even color,
that beautiful dark shade of hair,
which is so attractive, use only this
old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for
a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Darken
the hair so naturally, so evenly that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this
through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage
and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few
applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

BUSINESS GOOD, SAYS PRESIDENT

Asserts There Is No Real
Reason For Depression.

HOLD CONGRESS IN SESSION

No Adjournment or Vacation Until
After Passage of Anti-trust Bills.
Predicts That Campaign to Prove
Business Is Unhealthy Is Bound to Fail—Opposes Underwood Plan.

Washington, June 16.—Business in this country is actually healthy and there is no real basis for the alleged depression, President Wilson told his callers when he made it clear that in his mind this alleged depression is of an artificial nature. A normal amount of business, the president said, was apparent. And he was certain that the campaign to prove that business is in an unhealthy state is bound to fail.

These remarks the president dovetailed into his statement that he intends to hold congress in session until the administration trust program is enacted. Those opposing that program want to force an adjournment without action. President Wilson intends to do everything to defeat such a plan. He pointed out that the worst thing for business is a further delay of several months with business men uninformed definitely in regard to the plans of the legislators.

Majority Leader Underwood has supported a plan for the immediate adjournment of congress until after election and the trust bills then to be taken up at a special session. The president has no sympathy with such a plan, and he said so emphatically.

Wilson's Charges.

A sensation rivaling President Wilson's lobby charges of a combine to defeat the tariff bill was launched by the president himself.

He bluntly charged that a combination of business interests is behind the agitation to compel congress to adjourn without enacting trust legislation.

He caused to be made public correspondence which he said "speaks for itself" and proves his contention that the so called country wide business depression is "purely psychological."

The correspondence includes a letter sent out by W. P. Abbott, president of the Pictorial Review company of New York, asking its representatives and correspondents to send form letters to the president and lending legislators demanding that all proposed trust legislation be abandoned for the present.

"This correspondence speaks for itself," was the only comment on the subject the president would make at this time. He insisted emphatically, however, that this was only a single instance of the way in which certain business interests have attempted to create opposition to his trust program and declared that the entire plot will fail.

The president told his newspaper callers plainly just before he made the correspondence public that he was prepared to stay here all summer if necessary to get his trust program completed.

As a matter of fact, the president said, the worst thing that could happen to business would be to have a delay of several months with business men kept in the dark regarding the plans of lawmakers.

Will Insist on His Program.

He said that, so far as he was concerned, he would insist on the entire trust program going through as planned. He believes that it has been demonstrated to the country at large that there was much unnecessary delay in disposing of the canal tolls legislation and that at least a part of this was directly attributable to a desire to prevent trust legislation. But if the senate is convinced that trust legislation must be passed at the present time then the president feels certain the legislation will get the right of way.

President Wilson let it be known that he has received a protest from the United States chamber of commerce against the exemption given to labor organizations in the proposed trust bills and the sundry civil bill. He will consider the protest when the legislation reaches his desk, but it was apparent from his attitude that he does not think the opposition is warranted.

THAW'S MOTIONS DENIED.

Will Not Be Admitted to Bail Nor Allowed to Visit Pittsburgh.

Washington, June 16.—Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, will not be allowed to visit his old Pittsburgh home, nor will he be granted bail. Both motions before the United States supreme court were denied. The application for bail was made pending the hearing of his habeas corpus case, following his escape from Matteawan. The request that he be allowed to visit Pittsburgh was made by his attorney, ex-Governor William A. Stone, who told the court that Thaw was needed there to testify before the court which is winding up the estate of his father.

Thaw is now in the country in New Hampshire in custody of a United States marshal. He is practically a free man and is allowed to go where he pleases. He is a favorite with the summer colony.

CAPTAIN ROBERTS.

His Skill Saved Many Lives
When Liner New York Was Struck by the Pretoria.

With her damaged port bow covered with an old sail and the Pretoria's anchor sticking in the fireman's bathroom on the main deck the American liner New York was in collision early on Saturday morning, arrived at her pier and landed her 141 cabin passengers. The passengers were unanimous in their praise of the seamanship and judgment shown by Captain W. J. Roberts in handling his ship before and after the collision with the Pretoria. Captain Roberts has commanded the New York for twelve years, and this is the first accident he has had in that time.

PRETORIA'S CAPTAIN TELLS OF ACCIDENT

Makes No Effort to Fix Blame
For Collision.

New York, June 16.—While 200 ironworkers began repairing the huge rent torn in the port bow of the liner New York when she was rammed in the fog Saturday 180 miles off Nantucket lightship by the Pretoria and Captain Roberts was blaming the crash upon the other skipper the first word from Captain Dugge came by wireless to the Hamburg-American line.

In it he made no attempt to place the blame for the bump, as has been done by Captain Roberts, who intimates that the German ship was way off her course and rammed him while he was barely moving.

At the offices of the Hamburg-American line the following statement of the message received from Captain Dugge was given out:

"Captain Dugge of the Pretoria sends wireless stating that at 2:20 a. m. ship's time, Saturday, in a fog, Pretoria had a collision with the American liner New York. Only a few plates bent on Pretoria; ship firm and tight; no danger for passengers, ship or cargo. Proceeding on our voyage to Hamburg. Steamship New York required no assistance, proceeding to New York."

It was said at the Hamburg-American offices that a message will be sent to Captain Dugge asking him to give the ship's position at the time of the collision. This, it was said, is because of the statement reported to Captain Roberts of the New York that the Pretoria was off her regular track at the time of the accident.

CRATER STILL SMOKES.

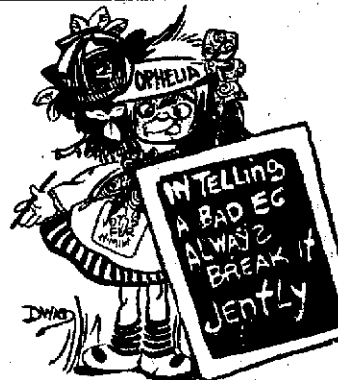

Parties Hunt For Men Caught by Volcanic Eruption.

Red Bluff, Cal., June 16.—Smoke and steam from the crater of Lassen peak could be plainly seen for a distance of 100 miles, while searching parties hunted for the missing men caught in the shower of volcanic rocks and ashes during eruptions in which one man was killed, two lost and another driven insane.

Mount Lassen is a volcanic peak in the Sierra Nevada range on the boundary between Plumas and Shasta counties and is 10,437 feet high. It has always been believed to be extinct, but on May 30 there was a slight eruption, showing the volcano was still active.

His Usual Way.

The new waitress sidled up to a dapper young man at the breakfast table, who, after glancing at the bill, opened his mouth, and a noise issued forth that sounded like the ripping off of all the cogs on one of the wheels in the power house. The new waitress made her escape to the kitchen. "Fellow out there insulted me," she said. The head waiter looked at him. "I'll get it," he said. "That's just the train caller, and he is ordering his breakfast."—Argo.

CONTRABAND CATTLE

Dealer Arrested for Importing Cattle Without Health Certificate.

Oscar Devore, a cattle dealer of near Eighty-four, Washington county, Pa., appeared before the county court at Washington, Pa., on June 11 and plead guilty to a charge of illegally importing cattle from West Virginia into Pennsylvania. He was sentenced to pay a fine and costs of prosecution.

The prosecution was brought by agents of the Pennsylvania State Live-stock Sanitary board who discovered that Mr. Devore had imported a number of cattle without being accompanied by a certificate of health as required by an act of assembly. State agents have been patrolling the Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia border line and a number of other prosecutions are pending.

Trinity Brotherhood to Call on Body at Curwensville.

The membership of the Brotherhood of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church is making arrangements to go to Curwensville, to visit the Brotherhood of the M. E. church there, on Friday evening of this week. The present arrangement is for the men to take the B. & P. train, and a special train will bring them back to Clearfield.

A meeting will be held on Wednesday evening immediately following prayer meeting, for the purpose of completing arrangements and all members of the Brotherhood are expected to be present.

Some months ago the Curwensville Brotherhood visited the order at this place, where all enjoyed a royal good time. Almost one hundred men from Curwensville were present, and it is hoped that the Clearfield aggregation will make an equally good showing.

Hamlin and Jones in Places Declined by Other Men.

Washington, June 16.—President Wilson has sent to the senate the following nominations for places on the federal reserve board:

A. C. Miller of California for the term of ten years.

W. T. G. Harding of Alabama for the term of eight years.

Thomas D. Jones of Illinois for the term of six years.

Paul M. Warburg of New York for the term of four years.

Charles S. Hamlin of Massachusetts for the term of two years.

Mr. Hamlin will be governor of the board. This place was offered Richard Olney of Massachusetts, who refused to accept it. At present he is assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of customs. He held the same place under the second Cleveland administration.

Mr. Jones of Chicago takes the place declined by Harry A. Wheeler of Chicago.

All of the men whose nominations were sent to the senate have signified their willingness to accept the proffered places. It is not expected that there will be any delay in the senate over confirmation of the appointments.

Mrs. Mayo Has Breakdown.

Proof That The Schoolteacher Stands For Big Boss

Washington State Chairman's Assertion That Brumbaugh is Tool of Bipartisan Machine Has Not Been Refuted—G. O. P. Candidate Cannot Deny It.

At the recent Lincoln club dinner, in Philadelphia, William T. Tilden, president of the Union League and intimate associate of Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, Republican candidate for governor of Pennsylvania, made the following statement:

"There are certain newspapers, I may say one in particular, which have declared that Doctor Brumbaugh would not appear on the same platform with Senator Penrose and that he would not speak from the same platform.

Brumbaugh for Penrose.

"That kind of twaddle is all nonsense. Doctor Brumbaugh will stand on the same platform as Senator Penrose. He will have to stand on the same ticket.

"And I may say with authority that Doctor Brumbaugh is just as anxious to see Senator Penrose elected as to see himself elected.

"I will say for Doctor Brumbaugh that the most important thing for us is the election of Penrose for United States senator."

Can He Refute It?

No answer or denial has yet been made concerning the charges brought in a statement issued by Chairman A. Nevin Detrich, of the Washington party state committee as follows:

"As to the Brumbaugh campaign, I charge that it was and is principally in the hands of the machine. W. Harry Baker, Penrose's political secretary, had charge of the work of securing signers to the Brumbaugh nominating petitions.

"Most of the petitions were carried by the same men who carried the Penrose petitions, many of them being actively engaged in the liquor business and most of them being of the bread-and-butter political brigade.

Trying to Fool Voters.

"I charge that the Brumbaugh petitions were carried in all parts of the state by employees of the various departments in Harrisburg, especially the highway department, the department of health, the dairy and food department, and that these employees did the work on the state's time, while drawing salaries from the state.

"Finally, I charge that Doctor Brumbaugh has a distinct understanding with Senator Penrose and that it is agreed between them that they are to stay apart on the stump."

PERMITS GRANTED

The Summer Bible school is a regular and prominent feature of the chautauqua and Bible conference work of this well-known summer resort.

Evangelist Johnson Speaks Plainly to Osceola People

Osceola Mills, June 16.—Three rousing services were held in the big tabernacle Sunday. The building was crowded at every service and on account of the large number who were unable to get into the building it was decided by the committee to enlarge the building, which was done Monday. They came from neighboring towns all around.

The evangelist "Bob" Johnson, and party, have won many friends here and are making many church members and sinners feel there is something wrong with their way of living. At the evening meeting Sunday, a number of men and women "struck the trail."

The Men's Meeting.

The men's meeting opened in the tabernacle Sunday afternoon at the appointed time with a delightful and forceful song service under the direction of Prof. Weaver, there being a choir of about 50 male voices and an audience of between 500 and 600 men. Mr. Mainwaring also pleased the men by his masterful playing.

Rev. Johnson began his discourse by stating that as he looked out on the audience he thought of all these men as lovers of homes. Among his announcements was the one for Tuesday night when he expects to speak on the subject of "Backbone" which he urged all men to hear. He is going to put Osceola on the map for God.

The Social Peril.

His subject for Sunday afternoon meeting, "The Social Peril," was taken from a part of verse 35 of Psalm 104, "Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more." In a straightforward manner and with examples he enlightened the men on the awful sins that are being committed all around us day in and day out, and the audience almost to a man upheld him in his statements by frequent applauding. Among other things he said: "We should be very careful about our lives; how we influence others. 'Whosoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.' Our personal liberty is to be governed by the liberty of others. I would rather suffer my right arm to be cut off with a cleaver than to put my name down on a ballot to let a man make as many drunks as he can for twelve months. Blood will tell in man and beast. I am going to make it as hard to do wrong and as easy to do right as I can while in this town." Gal 6: 7, "Be not deceived, God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." The world will laugh with you so long as you have a dollar to blow, but when the dollars are blown, it will have nothing to do with you."

Parents Responsible.

He related the story of how Eve tempted Adam to eat of the forbidden fruit in the garden of Eden, and the sad consequences of this sin. "The boys are smarter today than we were when we were boys." 1 John 1: 7, "The blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth us from all sin." Psalms 14: 1; "The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God; they are corrupt; they have done abominable works; there is none that doeth good. The Lord looked down from Heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God. They are all gone aside, they are all together or become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one." The Grape-Nuts man said: "There's a reason," so in these awful sins that are being committed there's a reason, and very often the fathers and mothers are to blame for the sins of their boys and girls. You are not a good citizen when you swear. If there is anything I despise it is to see a lot of men standing around on the corners telling a lot of dirty stories and swearing. 'Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord, thy God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.' Stealing is better than cursing. Money for the boys to spend sends them to hell quicker than anything else. A boy always wants a friend when he is in trouble. Many a boy is blamed for the sins of his father. You can teach your boy to follow your tracks."

Brother William C. Brown then took the stand and gave an interesting testimony of how he was won to Christ and urged others to accept Him as their Savior.

RAILROADERS HIT HARD

Conductors and trainmen in the passenger service of the Pennsylvania railroad system will get no vacations at full pay this summer. The management has cut off such vacations, which is regarded as gratuities to the men.

For this, several reasons are given. First of all, under the award last fall with regard to wages and working conditions of trainmen, the company was required to do a number of things which the management felt to be unreasonable and burdensome.

It was then stated that the vacations at pay, which not all railroads had been allowing would be discontinued, on the Pennsylvania railroad.

Another reason is to cut down present expenses. Yet another given is that the company has encountered such persistent demand from the labor unions for equalized conditions of service that the vacations are ended because they were not given in all branches of the service nor by all companies.

C. R. McMurray, while on the way to Mahaffey Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. McGee, accompanied by Dr. Bennett in the latter's automobile, had his nose broken and two teeth knocked out.

The accident was the result of the automobile striking a "thank-you man" in the road, Mr. McMurray being bounced against the top of the car, his face striking the rib of the cover, with the above result.

President Wilson Completes Surrender to Great Britain.

Washington, June 16.—President Wilson yesterday signed the Panama tolls exemption repeal bill as amended in the senate and agreed to by the house.

There was no ceremony at the formal approval of surrender to Great Britain. Mr. Wilson signed the bill with a quill pen used by President Harrison in signing the international copyright law in 1891, and by President Taft in signing the Pan-American copyright treaty, the Lincoln memorial bill and the act incorporating the National Institute of Art and Letters.

The pen is the property of Robert Underwood Johnson, of New York.

"Strangers of Paris"

"The Strangers of Paris," the first of a series of famous subjects, was given at the New opera house, Monday evening. A good-sized audience saw the pictures and enjoyed them. This picture is dramatized from Beloit's famous novel of the same name, by David Belasco, and to say that the pictures were well staged is putting it mildly. Others of the series will be shown soon. Watch for the announcements, and enjoy some really good motion pictures.

Surveying for Culverts.

George C. Campbell, of the state highway department, is in town today, having been called here to help to survey for three small culverts in Lawrence township.

A man named Krofts was lodged in jail Monday on the charge of stealing copper wire from Swoope & Co., at Madera and selling it at DuBois.

DuBois Fire Anniversary.

Bass fishing season opened Monday but as there are no bass in the river, local fishermen are not interested in the announcement.

Will Never Consent to a Dictator Becoming President.

ULTIMATUM TO WILSON

Representative of Dictator in Washington Ascertains That Rather Than Vote to Constitutionalists Huerta Will Fight—United States May Invade Mexico City Next.

Washington, June 16.—An ultimatum by Huerta demanding that he be allowed to name his successor threatened to end all Mexican mediation proceedings. Huerta has declared again that no Constitutionalist shall succeed him, except through force.

The rebels are equally determined that one of their number must head the proposed provisional government. Carranza further complicated the efforts toward mediation by refusing to send delegates to the Niagara Falls conference unless formally invited by the A. B. C. mediators.

Wilson Gets Reply.

Huerta's latest ultimatum was delivered to President Wilson by Charles A. Towne, former senator from Minnesota, now a New York attorney. Mr. Towne told the president that if Carranza or any of his followers is chosen head of the provisional government by the Niagara Falls mediators Huerta will fight to a finish.

The dictator is insistent that if the supreme authority in Mexico is temporarily vested in a commission of five three members at least must be able to carry out Huerta's plans.

Should a break in the mediation plans occur now it is felt that it will result from this government insisting that the Constitutionalist be formally recognized in the formation of the new government.

"Will Fight to Finish."

"General Huerta will not agree to the naming of any follower or supporter of General Carranza under any circumstances," said Mr. Towne. "He will fight to a finish before he will make any such concession."

"To do otherwise would be equivalent to his saying to Carranza: 'I resign. You or one of your men can take my office.' And he certainly will say nothing of the kind."

So far the mediation envoys have been unable to agree on the personnel of the proposed provisional government. This was due to the attitude of the Huerta delegates, who informed the A. B. C. mediators of Huerta's unalterable position toward having a Constitutionalist succeed him.

Backed by the president and Secretary Bryan, the American delegates have held out for adequate representation for the Carrankistas in the new government.

United States May Invade Capital.

Occupation of the City of Mexico by the United States in the event of the failure of the mediation conference was freely discussed here among the army and navy circles.

It was conceded that this move would practically be forced on the United States unless all American forces were withdrawn from Vera Cruz, which is highly improbable.

Good evening! Lost all desire to

pleasant evenings, eh?

WOMEN'S CLOTHES.

A number of club women are in session in Chicago discussing matters of
more or less import to their sex.
Among other topics occupying the attention of the women is that of dress.
At the very beginning of the discussion it might be just as well for the
club women to bear in mind the fact
that they may talk until doomsday
and resolve until they wear out their
pencils and paper, but women will
dress as they please, after all.

Women's dress of today is ridiculous, of course. Even some of the females of the species admit this. But
what woman is going to bring down
upon her head the anathemas of her
sisters by attempting to show why
women should dress sensibly? Fashion decrees and woman obeys, with-
er the style is pretty or outlandish.
Mere man looks on with amazement,
but is silent—except occasionally when
he sees a woman who is trying to see
just how little clothing she can get
upon her person without incurring
the displeasure of the law.

Not one woman in ten knows who
originates the fashions in dress which
she copies, whether these are the
work of freaks or women haters who
want to make women appear ridiculous. It is said that the extremes in
dress originate among the demi-
monde in Paris, but whether this be
true or not the woman who is clothed
in the latest style does not stop to inquire. The matter of feminine apparel
will adjust itself in time, but that time
appears to be a long way off.

WHAT OF THE YOUTHS?

That raid of lower Witter park on Sunday night, in which two girls under sixteen years of age were apprehended in company with a number of

boys of tender years should open the
eyes of some of the parents in Clear-
field. Is it possible for young girls
and boys to walk the streets or rendezvous in parks and other places with-
out their parents' knowledge? We do not think so, and the parents of way-
ward children must be charged with
responsibility for the ruin of their
sons and daughters.

There is scarcely an hour of the
night, from the coming of darkness
to one and two o'clock that young
boys and girls may not be seen on the streets of this town. That these youngsters are not away from home
for any good purpose is self-evident.
How long will the fathers and mothers of this town blind themselves to
the misconduct of their young sons
and daughters? Are they waiting to see their children haled into juvenile court and sentenced to reform
schools?

The Clearfield County Law association and the citizens of the county generally owe a big debt of gratitude to Thomas H. Murray, Esq., who
has brightened the court room with
the portraits of three of the judges
who sat on the bench here in the early history of the county.

It is up to the fathers and mothers
of Clearfield tots to see that the Fourth of July is celebrated in a safe
and sane manner.

An Ohio court has decided that
wooden legs are wearing apparel, but
no woman will pine for one, nevertheless.

Brumbaugh may be styled the artful dodger of the present political campaign.

EPIGRAMS BY A FORMER RAILROAD PRESIDENT.

The following striking sentences are from the testimony of Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New Haven railroad,
before the interstate commerce
commission:

The great force in the world is brains. Mr. Morgan had them.
I had more bosses when I was getting $60,000 a year as president of the New Haven than
when I was getting $50 a month
as a clerk.

The higher a man gets in this
world the more bosses he has.
Everybody who has authority is
a boss.

I think that government control of railroads is sure to come.

They have an odd expression
which I think fits Mr. Morgan's case: "Where MacGregor sits is
the head of the table." He was MacGregor.

I am a poorer man today, than
I was when I first became president of the New Haven.

Gratitude is a lively expectation of favors yet to come.

We were looking for a lightning rod to shy away the knocks.
I was never reimbursed by the
New Haven for any political contribution made by me. No one
even said "Thank you."

My salary was raised from $50,000 to $60,000 a year in the face of my personal protest. But
I took the money because I felt
I might as well have it as somebody else. If any railroad president has not the ability to live
on $25,000 a year salary he has
not the ability to be president
of the road.

Stockholders are like sheep.
When they are getting divi-
dends they go out to the pasture to browse. When they don't get them they all start for the
same hole in the fence and try
to injure themselves.

I have always kept away from
politicians because I might have
something of value in my clothes.

These Are Given by Officer of Society
Formed to Fight the Disease in Public Message, Emphasizing Necessity
of Prompt Investigation of First Suspicious Signs.

Says Curtis E. Lakeman, executive
secretary of the American Society For
the Control of Cancer:

Cancer can be prevented or cured
and the needless sacrifice of thousands
of lives can be stopped by educating
the public as to the facts about this
disease. Safety lies only in early recognition of the symptoms and prompt
operation. Radium is useful in some cases, but it is not to be relied upon as
a substitute for surgical treatment—
the only known sure cure.

This message of the hope to be found
in early and competent treatment
should be spread broadcast. The need
of supplying the public with better
knowledge about the disease is vividly
shown by a newspaper clipping received at the office of the American Society
For the Control of Cancer. A woman
wrote to the inquiry column of the
newspaper that a lump on her breast
had been growing about a year. She
rubbed on it was good for it" and had
tried it without result except to cause
inflammation, and so she was "very much worried." The answer published
along with this letter advised her to
"bathe the spot thoroughly and apply
a pad of antiphlogisticin."

The foremost surgeon of the world
recently said in a public address that
people wait, on the average, a whole
year after discovering some suspicious
symptom before they go to the operating table. Another surgeon studied his own records and those of six
of the largest New York hospitals to
throw light both on the frequency of
cancer and the delay in seeking treatment. Out of 12,345 surgical patients
he found 542 cases of cancer, approximately one in twenty-two, or 4.39 per cent. In sixty-five cases of first operation for cancer he found that after
discovery of a tumor or after the first
suspicious symptoms the thirty-five
men had waited, on the average, 12.2
months before consulting the surgeon
and the thirty women an average of 11.9 months.

Delay Means Death.

In like manner Dr. Winter of Koenigsberg, Prussia, the pioneer in the education of the public on cancer, analyzed 1,087 records of operable cases
and showed that 87 per cent of these
patients could and should have come
to treatment much earlier.

A preliminary study of the records
kept at the hospital and laboratories
of one of the largest American centers
of medical education shows that the
chances of a permanent cure, if operation be resorted to promptly, are very
high. It shows equally that these

chances decrease with every day of
delay. And as the likelihood of cure
becomes remote the immediate danger
and damage of the operation become
greater. That is to say, a new and
small cancer may be removed without
much pain and without much mutila-
tion, but an old and dispersed cancer
leaves a serious wound behind it.

These records have already been analyzed and tabulated for cancer of the
lip, tongue and breast. The statement
of results takes account of the conditions said to precede actual cancer,
such as tobacco blisters, white spots
and sore places about the teeth. While
there is a difference of opinion as to
the bearing of such conditions on the
development of true cancer, it cannot
be denied that in many cases they
seem to cause the disease.

In operations on the tongue the figures show that the prompt removal of
the "precancerous lesion" resulted in 100 per cent of cures. In the second
stage—i. e., that of malignant warts—
complete removal was equally effective. But when the actual figures of
developed cancer were studied the proportion of cures dropped at once to 50
per cent.

Cancer of the Breast.

In cancer of the breast the danger of
delay is equally apparent. In the milder form, called adenocarcinoma, the
percentage of cures in all cases was 76, but in the late cases—i. e., those in which the cancerous nature of the tu-
mor was already obvious to the eye—
it was much less. In these early
cases there is a warning lump in the
breast, but no outward sign of malignant tumor. In the more malignant
forms of breast tumor the general percentage of cures dropped to 36 and in
late cases to 33, or one patient out of three. But even here the cures in early
cases reached 85 per cent.

In operations for cancer of the lip
the reports show 100 per cent of cures
in the earliest stages and 75 per cent
of cures after complete operation in
the later stages.

The evidence so far collected on early
cancer also gives an opportunity for a message to the people who seek help
in the later stage of cancer. Although
the chances of a cure here are less, the
disease in many instances is by no
means hopeless.

Standing Up and Sitting Up.

Lady de Bathe (Mrs. Langtry) once
made the piquant remark that she was
"a foe to dissipation or anything of
that kind, and I would urge every girl
to say 'No' to the dissipated man who would marry her. The man a girl is obliged to stand up for before marriage she will have to sit up for after-
ward."—Strand Magazine.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies are Using Re-
cipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.
Hair that loses its color and lustre
or when it fades, turns gray, dull
and lifeless, is caused by a lack of
sulphur in the hair. Our grandmothers
made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and
beautiful, and thousands of women
and men who value that even color,
that beautiful dark shade of hair,
which is so attractive, use only this
old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for
a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." darkness
the hair so naturally, so evenly that
nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff,
stops scalp itching and falling
hair. You just dampen a sponge or
soft brush with it and draw this
through your hair, taking one small
strand at a time. By morning the
gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage
and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few
applications, it also brings back the
gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Asserts There Is No Real
Reason For Depression.

HOLD CONGRESS IN SESSION

No Adjournment or Vacation Until
After Passage of Anti-trust Bills.
Predicts That Campaign to Prove
Business Is Unhealthy Is Bound to Fail—Opposes Underwood Plan.

Washington, June 16.—Business in this country is actually healthy and there is no real basis for the alleged depression, President Wilson told his callers when he made it clear that in his mind this alleged depression is of an artificial nature. A normal amount of business, the president said, was apparent. And he was certain that the campaign to prove that business is in an unhealthy state is bound to fail.

These remarks the president dovetailed into his statement that he intends to hold congress in session until the administration trust program is enacted. Those opposing that program want to force an adjournment without action. President Wilson intends to do everything to defeat such a plan. He pointed out that the worst thing for business is a further delay of several months with business men uninformed definitely in regard to the plans of the legislators.

Majority Leader Underwood has supported a plan for the immediate adjournment of congress until after election and the trust bills then to be taken up at a special session. The president has no sympathy with such a plan, and he said so emphatically.

Wilson's Charges.
A sensation rivaling President Wilson's lobby charges of a combine to defeat the tariff bill was launched by the president himself.

He bluntly charged that a combination of business interests is behind the agitation to compel congress to adjourn without enacting trust legislation.

He caused to be made public correspondence which he said "speaks for itself" and proves his contention that the so called country wide business depression is "purely psychological."

The correspondence includes a letter sent out by W. P. Abbott, president of the Pictorial Review company of New York, asking its representatives and correspondents to send form letters to the president and lending legislators demanding that all proposed trust legislation be abandoned for the present.

"This correspondence speaks for itself," was the only comment on the subject the president would make at this time. He insisted emphatically, however, that this was only a single instance of the way in which certain business interests have attempted to create opposition to his trust program and declared that the entire plot will fail.

The president told his newspaper callers plainly just before he made the correspondence public that he was prepared to stay here all summer if necessary to get his trust program completed.

As a matter of fact, the president said, the worst thing that could happen to business would be to have a delay of several months with business men kept in the dark regarding the plans of lawmakers.

Will Insist on His Program.

He said that, so far as he was concerned, he would insist on the entire trust program going through as planned. He believes that it has been demonstrated to the country at large that there was much unnecessary delay in disposing of the canal tolls legislation and that at least a part of this was directly attributable to a desire to prevent trust legislation. But if the senate is convinced that trust legislation must be passed at the present time then the president feels certain the legislation will get the right of way.

President Wilson let it be known that he has received a protest from the United States chamber of commerce against the exemption given to labor organizations in the proposed trust bills and the sundry civil bill. He will consider the protest when the legislation reaches his desk, but it was apparent from his attitude that he does not think the opposition is warranted.

THAW'S MOTIONS DENIED.

Will Not Be Admitted to Bail Nor Allowed to Visit Pittsburgh.

Washington, June 16.—Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, will not be allowed to visit his old Pittsburgh home, nor will he be granted bail. Both motions before the United States supreme court were denied. The application for bail was made pending the hearing of his habeas corpus case, following his escape from Matteawan. The request that he be allowed to visit Pittsburgh was made by his attorney, ex-Governor William A. Stone, who told the court that Thaw was needed there to testify before the court which is winding up the estate of his father.

Thaw is now in the country in New Hampshire in custody of a United States marshal. He is practically a free man and is allowed to go where he pleases. He is a favorite with the summer colony.

CAPTAIN ROBERTS.

His Skill Saved Many Lives
When Liner New York Was Struck by the Pretoria.

With her damaged port bow covered with an old sail and the Pretoria's anchor sticking in the fireman's bathroom on the main deck the American liner New York was in collision early on Saturday morning, arrived at her pier and landed her 141 cabin passengers. The passengers were unanimous in their praise of the seamanship and judgment shown by Captain W. J. Roberts in handling his ship before and after the collision with the Pretoria. Captain Roberts has commanded the New York for twelve years, and this is the first accident he has had in that time.

Makes No Effort to Fix Blame
For Collision.

New York, June 16.—While 200 ironworkers began repairing the huge rent torn in the port bow of the liner New York when she was rammed in the fog Saturday 180 miles off Nantucket lightship by the Pretoria and Captain Roberts was blaming the crash upon the other skipper the first word from Captain Dugge came by wireless to the Hamburg-American line.

In it he made no attempt to place the blame for the bump, as has been done by Captain Roberts, who intimates that the German ship was way off her course and rammed him while he was barely moving.

At the offices of the Hamburg-American line the following statement of the message received from Captain Dugge was given out:

ship's time, Saturday, in a fog, Pretoria had a collision with the American liner New York. Only a few plates bent on Pretoria; ship firm and tight; no danger for passengers, ship or cargo. Proceeding on our voyage to Hamburg. Steamship New York required no assistance, proceeding to New York."

It was said at the Hamburg-American offices that a message will be sent to Captain Dugge asking him to give the ship's position at the time of the collision. This, it was said, is because of the statement reported to Captain Roberts of the New York that the Pretoria was off her regular track at the time of the accident.

CRATER STILL SMOKES.

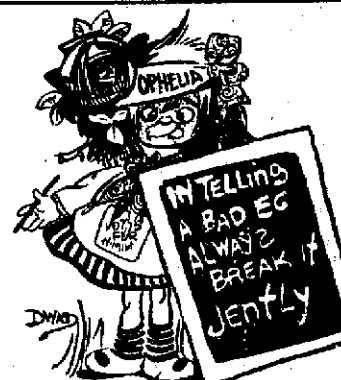

Parties Hunt For Men Caught by Volcanic Eruption.

Red Bluff, Cal., June 16.—Smoke and steam from the crater of Lassen peak could be plainly seen for a distance of 100 miles, while searching parties hunted for the missing men caught in the shower of volcanic rocks and ashes during eruptions in which one man was killed, two lost and another driven insane.

Mount Lassen is a volcanic peak in the Sierra Nevada range on the boundary between Plumas and Shasta counties and is 10,437 feet high. It has always been believed to be extinct, but on May 30 there was a slight eruption, showing the volcano was still active.

His Usual Way.

The new waitress sidled up to a dapper young man at the breakfast table, who, after glancing at the bill, opened his mouth, and a noise issued forth that sounded like the ripping off of all the cogs on one of the wheels in the power house. The new waitress made her escape to the kitchen. "Fellow out there insulted me," she said. The head waiter looked at him. "I'll get it," he said. "That's just the train caller, and he is ordering his breakfast."—Argo.
